

WELCOME TO GEAUGA COUNTY...

NORTHEAST OHIO'S HISTORIC & AMISH REGION

Geauga County is a great place to relax and refresh yourself. Here the pace of life is in tune with nature and the seasons.

Springtime is the sweetest season. The fragrance of maple syrup is in the air throughout the county as steam rises from the many sugarhouses. Summer brings blossoms to our orchards and farms. Enjoy the many farm markets as you travel the county. Autumn bursts with a tapestry of color and a variety of festivals before winter brings the wonder of the snow white landscape.

COFFEE SHOP | TEA PARLOR | RESTAURANTS | EVENTS
HISTORIC VILLAGE | ANTIQUES | UNIQUE SHOPPING

Burton and Troy Township

(some addresses indicate Hiram, Middlefield or Parkman for mailing purposes)

The quiet rural community of Burton has a rich history. The town square is patterned after the New England village greens. In 1798, Burton became the first settlement, and the first official township in the county, the historic district is known for its fine examples of Western Reserve architecture. In 1877, Burton was the home of Ohio's first telephone line. You will find a historic marker outside the Burton Chamber of Commerce Log Cabin and Sugar Camp commemorating the event.

For over 90 years the sweet aroma of maple sap boiling in the log cabin on the square has signaled the start of the spring "gold rush". Each March crowds make their way to Burton, aka: Pancaketown USA, for all-you-can-eat Sunday pancake breakfasts topped off with golden maple syrup.

Burton is home to The Great Geauga County Fair, Ohio's oldest continuous county fair and one of the oldest existing agricultural fairs in the nation. Geauga County's agricultural history has been celebrated at the fair for 200 years.

Century Village Museum, located in Burton, is a fully restored representation of a Western Reserve Village from 1798 to the end of the 19th century. The Museum contains over 20 historically authentic buildings, more than 15,000 museum artifacts, a working farm, a sugarbush for making maple syrup and a Maple Museum.

Come visit these wonderful historic sites and be sure to stop at the lovely shops and exceptional restaurants in Burton and the surrounding communities. There are a wide variety of dining options from the coffee shop, to the tea parlor, great American food, or creative contemporary cuisine and fine dining. There are great choices for every palate.

Huntsburg Township, Middlefield Village, Parkman Township

Everywhere you turn in Eastern Geauga County there are wonderful discoveries. Start your day with a hearty breakfast at one of our fine restaurants and then set out to explore the village shops and backroad treasures.

As you travel the country roads you may pass Amish farmers working their fields with horses. Many of the farms have roadside stands that sell a variety of produce, eggs, home-made jams, bakery, and other items. Our cheese houses invite you to stop and sample their award winning offerings. If you enjoy searching for that rare find add our antique malls to your itinerary. They gather items from far and wide to stock their shops. Explore everything from jewelry and clothing to household items, or furniture...if its an antique it's here!

Take a break for ice cream served from an authentic 1920's era soda fountain at the Historic Society Railroad Depot, then continue your search for another kind of treasure found at the many Amish salvage and overstock stores. If you like a bargain...you will find it!

Beautiful crafts, native american items, jewelry, artwork, hand made glasswork, furniture housewares, hand made soaps and so much more fill the stores.

Local craftsmen will build you an amazing backyard shed, playhouse, man-cave or "she-shack" or patio. They will bring your vision to life!

Our garden centers offer workshops on beekeeping, fairy gardens, herbs and an amazing array of plants to exercise your green thumb. Nature Lover's Nest is heaven to those who care for their feathered friends.

With so much to see and do, we can't list it all. For more information about shopping, dining, entertainment and events visit DestinationGauga.com
